

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

1 Peter 1:1-2

Chosen

Getting Started

Have you ever been a stranger in a foreign land? Describe your experience.

Background

Peter probably wrote his first letter in the early 60's, during the reign of Nero.

Digging In

1. Read 1 Pet 1:1-2. Locate the places Peter names on a map.
2. What do you think it means that Peter addresses his letter to God's elect? In what sense are they chosen?
3. On what basis were we chosen? (v. 2)
4. For what purpose did God choose us? (v. 2)
5. How is a similar concept seen in Romans 8:29?
6. How was the Holy Spirit involved in the working out of God's plan?
7. What role did Jesus Christ have in God's plan to choose us?
8. Why does Peter also call his readers strangers in the world?
9. In what sense are we also strangers in the world?

Getting Personal

- How is the truth of our election both encouraging and humbling?
- What does it mean to live as strangers in the world? Give some practical examples.
- How can the recognition that we are chosen sojourners help us to persevere in serving Christ joyfully and wholeheartedly?

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

1 Peter 1:1-2

Chosen

Getting Started

Have you ever been a stranger in a foreign land? Describe your experience.

Background

Peter probably wrote his first letter in the early 60's, during the reign of Nero.

Digging In

1. Read 1 Pet 1:1-2. Locate the places Peter names on a map.
2. What do you think it means that Peter addresses his letter to God's elect? In what sense are they chosen?
3. On what basis were we chosen? (v. 2)
4. For what purpose did God choose us? (v. 2)
5. How is a similar concept seen in Romans 8:29?
6. How was the Holy Spirit involved in the working out of God's plan?
7. What role did Jesus Christ have in God's plan to choose us?
8. Why does Peter also call his readers strangers in the world?
9. In what sense are we also strangers in the world?

Getting Personal

- How is the truth of our election both encouraging and humbling?
- What does it mean to live as strangers in the world? Give some practical examples.
- How can the recognition that we are chosen sojourners help us to persevere in serving Christ joyfully and wholeheartedly?