

Questions for Reflection and Discussion
Hebrews 1:1-3
The Silence Is Broken

Getting Started

Name some Christmas traditions that point to Jesus.

Digging In

1. Read Hebrews 1:1-3. Give some examples of how God spoke in the past (that is, before the coming of Christ).
2. Who was ultimately responsible for the messages delivered by the prophets? Explain. (See 2 Peter 1:20-21)
3. How has God spoken in these last days (that is, since the coming of Christ)?

4. Why is Christ entitled to be the heir of all things? (Col 1:16)
5. Match the references in the second column with the phrases from Hebrews 1:2-3:

____ creator	a. John 1:18
____ sustainer	b. Luke 2:11
____ radiance of God's glory	c. John 1:3
____ exact representation of his being	d. Col 1:17
____ Savior	e. Eph 1:18-23
____ ruler	f. John 1:14

6. Bonus references. Read Col 1:15-20. Match each verse with the phrases from Heb 1:2-3. (Note: some verses fit with more than one description of Jesus.)

Getting Personal

Read Heb 1:1-3 again, along with Luke 2:1-20. How can what we learn from Hebrews 1:1-3 increase our appreciation of what God did at Christmas?
